Are we ready to pass a constitutional ammendment prohibiting Nobel Prize winners from holding public office yet?

Everybody, except socialists, liberals, and the state propaganda machine, knows that the Nobel Prize is a surreal joke played once a year, like April Fools' Day.

Hold_Politicians_Accountable

All of our politicians need to be held accountable including candidates. We can start by holding Congress responsible for not standing up for american citizens that they are suppose to serve. Send this to everybody on your mailing list. Recommend it on Facebook, Tweet it. Ask everybody you can to do the same. We need all the signatures we can get.

What we need is <http://www.petition2congress.c...>

I actually loved this letter. I sent it to my representative, but have received no response yet. If everyone told their representative they will be held responsible for their action or in the case of the budget, inaction and followed thru in November, we would have a totally different set of rules coming from DC.

Obviously, you are unqualified to pass judgement. So, better, yet: only allow Nobel Prize winners to criticize other Nobel Prize winners.

No, it isn't obvious, and who appointed you judge and jury? Whats the matter, don't like that pesky 1st amendment so you make up silly rules to skirt around it?

Yes, tens of billions of "green taxpayer" dollars went to Obama bundlers, top donors, and supporters. Not to mention winners included those that "helped craft" the "energy part" of the stimulus package as well as at least four members of Obama's Job Council. Moreover, ten of Obama's 2008 Finance Committee — as Peter Schweizer pointed out in his "Throw Them All Out" book — benefited big time. Even some of Obama's Green Team, DOE Officials and Advisors! In my opinion, this is the largest, most deceptive and expensive case of crony capitalism in American history!

On a scale of a nation with 300 million people solar technology (and pretty much all "green" technology) is an absolute waste of time and money. This whole hoax is in fact designed to rob the U.S. taxpayer of trillions of dollars in order to line the pockets of Al Gore, the UN, and Obama and his cronies. The whole scam is designed to divert money back into Obama campaign coffers. Obama is supposed to be our leader, how on earth could he disregard the economics of scale related to this?

The truly sad thing is that all this wasted time and money on "green" technology is diverting us from actually developing real solutions to our energy woes. The reality is that we in the U.S.A. have enough coal and oil through direct drilling and processing of shale to last this nation several hundred years but we are prevented from utilizing this liberating technology by the extreme left environmentalists. A more long term strategy would emphasize fission/fusion. Obama approaches this issue like a child.

It also proves that they do not have a clue what makes this melting pot we live in the great nation that it is. It is elementary and these overly educated idiots can't see the forest for the trees. My house cat would be a better president.

Follow the money and follow the campaign contributions. People need to go to jail.

Chu is an idiot and an incompetent. How did this fool end up as Energy Secretary? Is there a vetting process or was he just another Obama sycophant from some left wing think tank?

I shudder to think what other disasters will be uncovered at all the agencies once all these Obamatons are booted - I truly believe we will find incompetence and corruption never seen before in the history of this nation.

Nobel Chu?

Has anyone heard Chu has a Nobel Prize in Physics?

Just because he is a brainiac in physics, he is an ECONOMIC IMBICLE. Chu is a leftist nutty professor who doesn't know the first thing about economics.

Obama and his henchmen use our money like it's monopoly $.

If the government were to insist that companies receiving taxpayer dollars be legitimate businesses, with legitimate products, how would the Administration be able to funnel taxpayer dollars to Democrat political cronies, and other fellow travelers on the road to socialism?
