

XP VEHICLES says it is seeking representation for class-action anti-trust and RICO lawsuit against Elon Musk and Tesla Motors

Based on witness testimony, recent leaks and federal investigations, XP VEHICLES (<http://www.xpvehicles.wordpress.com>) today announced that it is seeking legal representation for a class-action Anti-trust and RICO lawsuit against Elon Musk and Tesla Motors.

XP VEHICLES staff said they were unable to comment further on active litigation but we were able to source out some additional background from other outlets. All small independent vehicle makers that Musk, Tesla, Kleiner, and their paid-for politicians screwed with, appear to be eligible for the class. A “class” is a legal term meaning those who were damaged, in the same way, by the malicious actions of the same defendants. “RICO” means..well: Organized Crime. For the case to make this point they are going to have to prove that Musk, Kleiner, et al conspired with each other and public officials in order to rig public dollars. Two 60 Minutes episodes called: THE CLEANTECH CRASH and THE LOBBYISTS PLAYBOOK, seem to set the road for that approach and the links we dug up, below, may hold the keys to sealing the deal.

Stay tuned for more on this as details emerge.

In our research, public WIKI's, such as those below, seem to add color to the story:
